

Compassionate Coping through fertility.

Dear Repromed Patients,

We know that going through fertility uncertainty and treatment can be a difficult and emotionally challenging time. This free seminar will provide you with valuable resilience skills to support you through the highs and lows of the fertility journey.

Learn the skills to:

- ✓ Respond to anxiety and stress with self-kindness
- ✓ Motivate yourself through kindness rather than self-criticism
- ✓ Handle difficult situations and emotions with greater ease
- ✓ Create a greater personal sense of peace

About your teacher

Sarah Friis has a Masters in psychology from The University of Auckland and completed Mindful Self-Compassion Teacher training in November 2016. Sarah is no stranger to the challenges of infertility. After 7 miscarriages and 8 long years of fertility treatment she is blessed to have two beautiful boys, Hugo and Louis. She has spent many years facilitating personal and professional development programmes and is a co-founder of her own successful team performance consulting business. From her personal experience and desire to help others just like her, she brings this not-for-profit training exclusively to the fertility treatment community.
